Question: Is the saying, "The road to Hell is paved with good intentions" a part of Biblical Scripture, or is it only a common saying?

Answer: "The road to Hell is paved with good intention" is in the same category as several other well-known phrases like: "cleanliness is next to godliness," "God helps those who help themselves," "confession is good for the soul," "we are prone to sin as the sparks fly upward," "money is the root of all evil," and "honesty is the best policy." They may have a biblical ring, but are not actually Biblical quotations.
