MONEY IS NOT THE ANSWER!

For a long time this nation has operated upon the false premise that more money can fix about anything. But, does the evidence substantiate the claim? Absolutely not! Billions and billions of dollars have been poured into programs to help the poor, but people are still living in squalor and struggling to make ends meet. Billions more have been spent on education, yet we continue to hear disparaging news about our educational system and the lack of a properly educated work force in this country.

Nearly every week some new national crisis is declared, and demands for billions to fix it may be heard. Obviously, a certain amount of money is necessary to feed the hungry, house the needy, and educate the children of this nation. But there comes a time when money is not the answer.

All the money in the world cannot educate children who are unwilling to learn. No matter how much money we spend, we cannot lift anyone out of poverty who is unwilling to help himself.

In most cases, what is needed is not more money, but more determination, more ambition, more resolve to do better. People need a hand up more than a

CHIVALRY IS NOT DEAD

In Leeds, on a wet wintry night outside the railway station, a ragged, dirty boy was selling papers. He said: “Buy an evening paper, sir. Please do. Only seven left, and they’s all my profit.”

The boy’s eagerness arrested the man’s attention. Looking down he saw a bright, honest, intelligent face. He questioned him, and found his parents were, “drinking at a public house in Briggate.”

“Have you no cap to wear this rainy night?”

“Yes,” he said, but he had lent it to his sister, who was waiting in a doorway across the road till he sold out. The cap was on her feet because she had “no boots and stockings, so I told her to put her feet inside my cap to keep’em warm and prevent her ketchin’ cold.”

Surely this was a self-sacrificing chivalry worthy of the knights of old, for a boy who thus cared for his sister exhibited the true spirit of bravery.

—Told in Dr. Bernardo’s “Night and Day.”

Remember where to run.

“The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous run to it and are safe.”
Proverbs 18:10

God’s word changes a person.

“The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul. The statues of the Lord are trustworthy, making wise the simple. The precepts of the Lord are right, giving joy to the heart. The commands of the Lord are radiant, giving light to the eyes.” Psalm 19:7-8 hand out! What is needed is more self-reliance, more hard work, more commitment to succeed. People need to help themselves! What is needed is more faith in God, more faith in God given values, more faith in the Bible. The true measure of a man is not what he owns, but what owns him. No man is truly successful who has left God out of his life!

SPRING BIBLE SCHOOL QUARTER

If you think money is the answer, think again. Solomon described two kinds of men in Proverbs 13:7. First, there are those who make themselves rich, but are really impoverished. Then, there are those who make themselves poor, but in fact, have great riches. All the money in the world cannot buy good health, a good name, a single additional day of life, or our eternal salvation.

Money is not the answer. Often, it is the problem! The love of money remains “the root of all evil” (1 Timothy 6:10).

WANTED—GREAT HEARTS

The Word is solemn; therefore, do not trifle.

The task is difficult; therefore, do not relax.

The opportunity is brief; therefore, do not delay.

The path is narrow; therefore, do not wander.

The prize is glorious; therefore; do not faint.

RAMBLINGS

--By Roger

Kurt Harrison is scheduled to be our devo speaker this Wednesday evening. Todd Hague will be our devotional speaker March 9. As I write this, three dates are still available. Would you be willing to fill one of those spots (March 23, 30, and April 6)? The signup sheet is on the board in the lobby. If you have any questions regarding our midweek devos, please see Tim Loughry.

Our annual men’s business meeting was last Sunday afternoon. Special thanks to all who attended that meeting.

This coming Wednesday evening we will begin a study of Nehemiah in the auditorium class. Please read the first chapter in preparation for that study. If you haven’t been attending our midweek Bible studies, now would be an excellent time to start.

Daylight Saving Time begins March 13, so you will need to set your clock ahead one hour Saturday evening, March 12. Believe it or not, that’s just two weeks away. I know winter isn’t over yet, but I always feel like it is once we get into March. We can still get some nasty weather in March, but it generally doesn’t last that long. I don’t know about you, but I am ready for spring to arrive!

Our Thursday Ladies’ Class will conclude at the end of March, and God willing, will resume in October. It continues to be one of the most enjoyable classes I am privileged to teach. As I write this, our last class had nineteen in it, and at least four of our regulars were not able to be present that day. If it sounds like something you might enjoy, we would be happy to have you join us. We will begin a new study of Genesis as soon as we conclude our study of the Daughters of Eve.

Our thanks to Gary and Eric Smith of Smith StyleCrete for the covering over the ramp at the rear of our building. I am confident it will greatly improve access to that part of our facility, especially in inclement weather.

Have a good afternoon, and I hope to see you again at 5:00 for our evening assembly.
