The Justice of God

When children cry out “that’s not fair,” parents often reply, “life isn’t fair.” Sadly, this is the truth. We wish that justice was always delivered in this world, but in many cases it is not. People escape the consequences of their actions all of the time. Murder cases have gone cold, wealthy people have embezzled large sums and have never been caught, persons have gone missing by way of traffick-ing and have never been found, and so on. Not every heinous crime receives a just penalty—not yet.

Hear the words of the apostle Paul:

It is clear evidence of God’s righteous judgement that you will be counted worthy of God’s kingdom, for which you also are suffering, since it is just for God to repay with affliction those who afflict you and to give relief to you who are afflicted, along with us. This will take place at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with his powerful angels, when he takes vengeance with flaming fire on those who don’t know God and on those who don’t obey the gospel of our

Jesus. They will pay the penalty of eternal destruction from the Lord's presence and from his glorious strength... (2 Thessalonians 1:5-9)

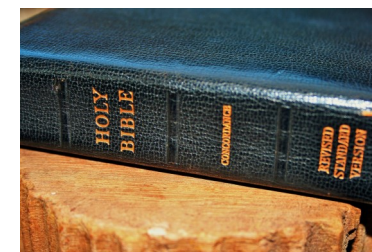

From the above passage we observe that God will both punish evil doers for their affliction and relieve those who are afflicted for the sake of Christ. However, this will happen on the last day. On that day complete judgment will be brought forth; full justice will be delivered.

The scriptures should remind us that God will do what is right: "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; grief, crying, and pain will be no more, because the previous things have passed away. Then the one seated on the throne said, 'Look, I am making everything new'" (Revelation 21:4-5).

For those of you who may be hurting from injustice, it will be resolved. For those who need comfort for your afflictions, it will be given. For all who are trying to run away from God and the consequences of disobedience, you will be found.

"When all has been heard, the conclusion of the matter is this: fear God and keep his commands, because this is for all humanity. For God will bring every act to judgment, including every hidden thing, whether good or evil" (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14).
